The Stuttgart Military Community Celebrates Asian Pacific Heritage Month

May is designated as Asian Pacific Heritage Month! In honor of this special occasion, various organizations and directorates will host the following special events and activities.

- Throughout the month of May, USAG Stuttgart will display an Asian Pacific Heritage exhibit at the Panzer PX to be enjoyed by the community.
- Monday, May 23, 2011, the Robinson Barracks Movie Theater will present a FREE screening of the movie “The Joy Luck Club” at 6 P.M. The film adaptation of Amy Tan’s bestselling novel tells the powerful story of four remarkable friends whose extraordinary lives are filled with joy and heartbreak.
- Thursday, May 26, 2011, the Patch Movie Theater will present a FREE screening of the movie “Slumdog Millionaire” at 11 A.M. The 2008 Oscar-winning film is an inspirational drama about a teen orphan from the slums of Mumbai who becomes a contestant on the Indian version of “Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?” Upon being arrested under suspicion of cheating, and while being interrogated, events from his life history are shown which explain why he knows the answers.
- Tuesday, May 31, 2011, the AFRICOM EEO Office will have an Asian Pacific Heritage Observance beginning at 11:30A.M. at the Kelley Theater.
- The Patch Dining Facility will serve an Asian Pacific lunch menu in honor of this month. Date to be announced.*
- The Patch and Robinson Barracks Libraries will feature special book displays in honor of Asian Pacific Heritage Month.
